

RBK Cycling Junior Girls Development Team

RBK Cycling is an Australian & NSW based Junior Girls Development Team.

The Team will comprise of aspiring junior female cyclists which will be overseen by former Junior World Champion and multiple Australian Champion, Skye-Lee Armstrong-Koke. The program will also be supported by female cycling ambassador and Olympian Michelle Ferris.

The Team has been designed to help promote and raise awareness and increase participation numbers in female cycling beginning at a junior level in Australia.

RBK Cycling is now taking applications for their Junior Girls Development Team for 2010 -2011, all female cyclists between the ages of 15-19 yrs can apply.

RBK Cycling Junior Girls Development team is looking to select 4 riders in the Team, the selected 4 riders will be given the opportunity to be a part of a fully supported/sponsored cycling team for the 2010-2011 season.

Selected Team members will be provided with a Team bike, Team clothing and accessories, plus coaching and other developmental programs. Riders will be given the opportunity to not only race in NSW events but to participate in junior related events throughout Australia, with the ultimate goal of comprising a team to compete in various races internationally.

RBK Cycling has already secured valued sponsors and supporters and now just needs its riders to get the team on the start line.

Applications are by email and we ask for each rider to supply a resume and forwarding letter telling us why you should be on our Team. Applications close on Sunday 20 June and athletes making the short list will be contacted accordingly. The final Team will be selected by the end of June. In your application please include all necessary results/achievements and also your future goals.
